 Lists the TÖMER Language Education Fee; please visit the website of Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center for more detailed information: <https://dilmer.karatekin.edu.tr/>

3. Application

Applications will be accepted through the <https://ubys.karatekin.edu.tr/> web address. Applicants are required to accurately complete the online application form by navigating to Menu > Application Procedures > International Student Application for Institute (MENU> BAŞVURU İŞLEMLERİ> Enstitü için Uluslararası Öğrenci Başvurusu) on the website. Candidates are solely responsible for any consequences arising from incorrect information or preferences entered/uploaded in the Application Form.

4. Documents Required to be Uploaded to the Application System

- Original Bachelor's and/or Master's diploma in English or Turkish or a copy of its translation into either of these languages.
- Original Bachelor's and/or Master's transcript in English or Turkish, or a copy of its translation into either of these languages.
- C1 Certificate if available.
- A copy of the identification page(s) of the passport.
- Portrait photograph.
- For candidates applying to a Master's program taught in English: A document certifying a minimum score of 65 obtained from a centralized English exam recognized by the Council of Higher Education (YÖK) or an exam administered by the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER).
- A document certifying a minimum score of 55 for applicants applying to PhD programs taught in Turkish, and a minimum score of 65 for applicants applying to PhD programs taught in English, obtained from a centralized English language examination recognized by the Council of Higher Education (YÖK).
- A score report from international exams whose equivalence is recognized by ÖSYM corresponding to the scores stated in items (f) and (g) is also valid. Candidates who completed their undergraduate or graduate education entirely in English in Türkiye or abroad are exempt from the language requirement. However, the Institutes reserve the right to request candidates to fulfill the language requirement again if deemed necessary.

- i) Applications of candidates who do not meet the application criteria will not be evaluated.

The following candidates cannot apply to international student quotas for graduate education at Çankırı Karatekin University:

- a) Citizens of the Republic of Türkiye (T.C.), citizens of the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (KKTC), and dual nationals holding T.C. or KKTC citizenship as one of their nationalities.
- b) Those who held dual citizenship but renounced/lost T.C. or KKTC citizenship starting from 2011 and completed their undergraduate/graduate education in Türkiye or KKTC.
- c) T.C. citizens who completed their undergraduate/graduate education in the KKTC.
- d) Individuals who have received a disciplinary suspension/expulsion from any higher education institution.

➤ Master's Programs (Taught in Turkish):

- Bachelor's degree.
- Certificate of at least B2 level Turkish language proficiency obtained from the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER) or a TÖMER recognized by Çankırı Karatekin University.

NOTE: International students registered to Master's programs taught in Turkish must submit documentation certifying at least a B2 level Turkish language proficiency—obtained from an exam administered by the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER) or a TÖMER recognized by Çankırı Karatekin University—within 1 (one) year from the date of final registration. Students who fail to obtain the B2 certificate will be granted additional examination attempts.

- Students who fail to meet the B2 level Turkish language proficiency requirement within this period from a Turkish language exam administered by the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER) or a TÖMER recognized by the Çankırı Karatekin University will be dismissed from the Institute.

NOTE: Candidates who graduated from undergraduate or graduate programs taught in Turkish in Türkiye or abroad are exempt from the language requirement.

- Students admitted to graduate programs taught in Turkish who do not possess a B2 level Turkish certificate may take a maximum of 2 elective courses per semester in addition to the specialized field course and graduate level advisor course, subject to the approval of the advisor, recommendation of the Department Board, and the decision of the Institute Executive Board (EYK).

➤ Master's Programs (Taught in English):

- Bachelor's degree.
- Document certifying a minimum score of 65 from a centralized foreign language (English) exam administered by ÖSYM or an exam administered by the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER).

NOTE: A document certifying an equivalent score from national/international foreign language exams recognized by ÖSYM is also valid.

NOTE: Applicants who do not currently meet the minimum language score of 65 requirement may still apply. However, for these candidates (if admitted to a graduate program) to be able to register for courses, they are required to receive English language education either at the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER) or at another English education institution approved by the University and where the student's enrollment can be documented and meet the English language proficiency requirement at a level of 65 points within two (2) semesters (by the end of this period).

- Students who fail to meet the English proficiency at the level of 65-point within this period will be dismissed from the Institute.

NOTE: Candidates who graduated from undergraduate or graduate programs taught in English in Türkiye or abroad are exempt from the language requirement.

➤ Ph.D. Programs (Taught in Turkish):

- Master's degree.
- Document certifying a minimum score of 55 from a centralized foreign language exam recognized by the Council of Higher Education (YÖK) in an international foreign language specified and recognized by the respective program. (if the document is not available during application, the international student must submit proof of a minimum score of 55 from a centralized English exam recognized by the Council of Higher Education (YÖK), or an English exam administered by the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER) or a TÖMER recognized by the University, to the Institute within 1 (one) year from the date of final registration).

NOTE: A document certifying an equivalent score from international foreign language exams accepted as equivalent by ÖSYM is also valid. Candidates, who graduated from bachelor's or master's programs either in Türkiye or abroad whose language of instruction is in a foreign language, are exempt from foreign language requirement for doctoral programs. However, the Institutes reserve the right to request students to fulfill the language requirement again if deemed necessary.

NOTE: International students registered to Master's programs taught in Turkish must submit documentation certifying at least a B2 level Turkish language proficiency—obtained from an exam administered by the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER) or a TÖMER recognized by Çankırı Karatekin University—within 1 (one) year from the date of final registration. Students who fail to obtain the B2 level Turkish language proficiency certificate will be granted additional examination attempts.

- Students who fail to meet the B2 level Turkish language proficiency requirement within this period from a Turkish language exam administered by the Çankırı Karatekin University Language Education Application and Research Center (TÖMER) or a TÖMER recognized by the Çankırı Karatekin University will be dismissed from the Institute.

NOTE: Candidates who graduated from undergraduate or graduate programs taught in Turkish in Türkiye or abroad are exempt from the language requirement.

- Students admitted to graduate programs taught in Turkish who do not possess a B2 level Turkish certificate may take a maximum of 2 elective courses per semester in addition to the specialized field course and graduate level advisor course, subject to the approval of the advisor, recommendation of the Department Board, and the decision of the Institute Executive Board (EYK).
